

MEDIA ADVISORY:
December 3, 2007

CONTACT: Melissa Wagoner
(202) 224-2633

KENNEDY FIGHTS TO PROTECT MEDICARE

WASHINGTON, D.C.— Tomorrow, Tuesday, December 4th, at 2:00pm, Senator Edward M. Kennedy, Chairman of the Health, Education, Labor and Pensions Committee, will be joined by Medicare and retiree advocates to support strengthening Medicare through reducing overpayments to private plans. 48,000 signatures collected from seniors across the country supporting eliminating insurance industry subsidies will also be presented to Congress.

WHAT: Press Conference on strengthening and protecting Medicare

WHEN: 2:00pm tomorrow, Tuesday, December 4th, 2007

WHO: Senator Edward M. Kennedy

Max Richtman, Vice President, National Committee to Preserve Social Security and Medicare

Ed Coyle, Executive Director, Alliance for Retired Americans

Sadie Coleman, Medicare Beneficiary, Vice President, MD/DC Chapter,
Alliance for Retired Americans

WHERE: Russell Senate Office Building, Room 428

###