Consumer's Original Complaint

In October 2005, I was making $10 per hour working at a dental office. I contacted Allied in order to pursue my career. I decided to quit my job and start at this college. I maintained a 4.0 GPA for the 11 months I was there. In September 2006, my instructor, Redacted by HELP Committee, informed me that no other school would accept my credits because of who Allied was accredited by. I had just wasted my money and time. My instructor even left the school after he found out this information. He brought this information to the school President, Redacted by HELP Com, and the Director of Education. They offered him a raise to keep quiet about this information. Harold refused and resigned. The rest of the class and I had a meeting with the President, D.O.E., and The Director of Student Services. We brought up the fact that we felt betrayed, misled, and had to Redacted by the college. I wasted $26,000 and time away from my children.
