 8/27/09- The blog below appears to be from [Redacted] From the C-View notes, it appear the [Redacted] was able to reach him on Tuesday after several attempts. Any luck since then getting him in to meet with you? Please provide an update once available.
 8/24/09- From [Redacted] Hi [Redacted] The following KCI Charlestown student issue was in the latest KHEC blog report. Is there any way you could find out this students information and work with the school to remedy the situation?Kaplan Career Institute, [Redacted] <http://www.getdegrees.com/reviews/kaplan-career-institute>

 Observation:
 [Redacted] /l says that he would not recommend Kaplan Career Institute. He says that at Kaplan the price is high and the instruction lacking. He is not happy with the quality of the faculty and says that lab experiences have been few and far between. He ends on a note saying, "This is a corporate run school and as such...Money is the main object, not the quality of the education provided".
